

CONVERSATIONS About CONSERVATION

2021 SUMMIT  Tuesday, November 23, at Ocala Breeder's Sales Co.

PRESENTED BY BROOK LEDGE HORSE TRANSPORTATION

Marion County's open spaces and horse farms are the defining factor in its unique identity. How do we support growth without losing our global brand as Horse Capital of the World®? Join us at OBS as we hear from inspiring community leaders, explore creative solutions and learn the results of the Marion County Quality of Life Survey.

John C. Malone

Larger-than-life business executive, philanthropist, and conversationalist. With over 2.2 million acres to his name including Ocala's historic Bridlewood Farm, Malone is the largest private landowner in North America. He is sure to delight with his remarkable story and profound passion for land conservation.

Kevin Sheilley

President and CEO of the Ocala CEP
Mr. Sheilley will shine a light on the exciting economic and business development happenings in Marion County while also speaking to the importance of balancing growth with conservation.

SPECIAL REPORT: Marion County Quality of Life Survey

Hear the results of our collaboration with five business leaders to understand the needs and desires of Marion County's residents.

Introducing the Acorn Conservation Award!

Inaugural year winner will be announced at the Summit.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

12 PM to 1:30 PM in the OBS Auditorium
Lunch will be served 11:00 AM to 12 PM

Attend in-person for $35 or
Attend the live-stream for $15

LEARN MORE:

www.horsefarmsforever.com/conservation-summit/

FOLLOW:

#ConversationsaboutConservation2021

HORSE FARMS FOREVER